

Puligny-Montrachet, Les Tremblots, Vieilles Vignes

Hubert LAMY

LOCALITY: FRANCE – Burgundy – Côte de Beaune

APPELLATION: Puligny-Montrachet

GRAPE VARIETY: Chardonnay

WINEMAKER: Olivier Lamy

VINEYARD: 0.9 ha. planted in 1946 and 1970 over deeper clay-limestone soil. 3% slope at 230m elevation. Located on the southern border of Chassagne-Montrachet.

VITICULTURE: Organic (not certified).

WINEMAKING: The grapes are directly pressed, and the juice settles overnight in a stainless-steel vat. The next day the clear juice descends, via a gravity system, into neutral barrels for alcoholic fermentation over native yeasts and malolactic conversion.

AGING: Aged for 12 months in 300L and 600L barrels (0-5% new oak). Then blended and aged for 6-12 additional months in tank.

BOTTLING: Fined or filtered only if necessary.
